 Over 80% of lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans people voted Democrat in the 2018 midterms.
 Why do you think that is?

 If you've only ever called white people "racist" ...
 Guess what?
 You're a damn racist.
 And a coward.

Liberals think James Watson has ruined his legacy when he has actually solidified himself as one of the greatest scientists.

After the cult of liberalism has died, Watson will join the rarified air of men who stood by the truth despite fierce social/religious opposition.

James Watson Won't Stop Talking About Race

The Nobel-winning biologist has drawn global criticism with unfounded pronouncements on genetics, race and intelligence. He still thinks he's right, a new documentary finds.

Not everyone who is an US citizen is an American. Once you understand this, things are easier to understand.

Last night, Rashida Tlaib said "We're gonna go in there & we're gonna impeach the motherf*cker."

Listen up, moron...

The Democrats want Billions of Dollars for Foreign Aid, but they don't want to spend a small fraction of that number on properly securing our Border. Figure that one out!

Justice For Pierce Corcoran @Justice4Pierce · Jan 4

My baby brother Pierce was tragically killed in a wreck in Knoxville, TN on Saturday, December 29th, 2018 at 6:33pm. He was hit head on by an illegal immigrant who had no American citizenship, no license and no insurance. I am making this profile in the hopes of sharing his story.

"Only the inferior strive for equality"

Mr. White Puppy @whitepuppyman

The only people who want to be "equal" are inferior ones, incapable of being great; jealous, spiteful, angry, and in most cases too stupid to understand why the disparity exists. So, rather than enjoying the world their betters created, they'd sooner tear the whole thing down.

Westerners loved Shakespeare and Melville and Dickens and Paine, do you really think that the industrial revolution was given birth to by people with the average IQ of current sub-Saharan Africans?

Please, let common sense prevail.

IsaacTDO @IsaacTdo

Replying to @StefanMolyneux @YouTube

I know you're a busy guy and have lots to respond to, I'm just looking for what you think regarding the fact that if 100years ago the average IQ of westerners was 70, and now its 130. and the average IQ of developing countries is also increasing, how can it be tied to genetics?

Information is elusive about the origins of this beautiful design. It's called the Nordic-Celtic Knot, presumably created by the culture that arose from Norse-Celt interactions during the Viking period. Stunning!

The welfare state can only possibly work with a high IQ population, because smarter people make more money working than being on welfare. Opposite for low IQ

If you want your third world immigration, just know that you will crash the welfare state very quickly

Just a heads up
