Boogaloo Bois are a decentralized far right movement based around gun memes. The Boogaloo movement got its start amongst Nazi accelerationists hoping for a "boogaloo" aka race war. They've evolved to be less overtly white supremacist, and predominantly identify as libertarian/ "anarcho-capitalist", while denying their Nazi origins. They like to divert attention from serious issues in order to promote their own. Since the rest of the right dislikes and distrusts Boogers, they have recently tried to co-opt leftist and liberatory movements in order to maintain interest.
